

Inspired By The Book ... Adapted Into A Play

The new play Have You Filled a Bucket Today? by Ann Marie Gardinier Halstead uses humor, heart, and larger-than-life characters to teach students the concepts of Bucket Filling and Bucket Dipping. Based on Carol McCloud's award-winning books, the play tells the story of Trey, a 4th grade student who learns about Bucket Filling at summer camp. Along the way he is helped by Mimi the camp counselor, Professor Smarty Pants III, and Bucket Filling Fairy. This theatrical adaptation is a fun and effective way to teach students how to treat each other with kindness and respect.

Peaceful Schools is proud to present the first official tour of this play. We look forward to working with you to promote a socially safe and supportive environment.

“Peace is not merely a distant goal that we seek, but a means by which we arrive at that goal.”

About Peaceful Schools

Peaceful Schools' mission is to provide schools with the knowledge, systems, strategies and materials to support socially safe and supportive environments, and promote healthy social and emotional development.

We believe that learning the core social skills of Cooperation, Assertion, Responsibility, Empathy and Self-control are just as critical to future success as the mastery of core academic skills. We also believe that just like academics, social skills need to be taught, practiced and reinforced.

Have You Filled A Bucket Today? is a wonderful opportunity to introduce or reinforce the school wide expectations of caring, kindness and/or respect. We highly recommend that you support the messages of the play through classroom discussion and curricular activities before and after the play. As part of our play packages we offer a wide range of supports and resources to help you accomplish your goals.
